

,2012 nike nflComments are closed. I' ll take it one step further, clean up the grammar just slightly and point out that Clausen isn' t facing the Arizona Cardinals anymore. Reality could come back tonight and it' s pretty fair to assume the Steelers will attempt to blitz Clausen often. The Steelers do that with everybody and they' ll probably do it even more in an offense that was passed down from Fred Flintstone to coordinator Jeff Davidson. Copyright © Sports Blog,make your own nfl jersey,2012 nfl nike jerseys, All Rights Reserved. Tagged with: How has Clausen fared against the blitz this season? Well,buy nfl jerseys, I won' t even offer an adjective to describe it because the numbers say it all. When facing five or more rushers, Clausen has completed 43.5 percent of his passes while averaging 4.9 yards per attempt. He hasn' t thrown a touchdown pass when being blitzed. But I guess the good news is that he' s only been intercepted once off a blitz. His passer rating in those situations is 54.1. AP Photo/Bill NicholsRams quarterback Sam Bradford has progressed quickly.St. Louis' Sam Bradford is the NFC West quarterback forcing analysts to re-evaluate criticisms raised before and since the 2010 NFL draft. One of those analysts, ESPN' s Trent Dilfer,youth football jerseys, recently came clean. "If you watched his film at Oklahoma,new nfl jerseys,chicago bears jersey, he always played in a safe, comfortable environment,nfl nike pro combat uniforms," Dilfer said. "He did hardly any full-field reads. He hardly ever got through his progressions and he hardly ever climbed up in the pocket." Dilfer saw this as a "recipe for disaster" if Bradford played extensively early in his career. "He has proven me completely wrong,nfl jersey shop," Dilfer said. "This young man is learning at a rapid rate how to play the NFL game." Every other team in the NFC West faces legitimate quarterback questions heading into the final 12 games of the 2010 season. Some of those questions are longer-range than others. Matt Williamson of Scouts Inc. joined me in addressing them. How should the Arizona Cardinals proceed? HallMatt Williamson: Besides maybe Buffalo,nfl jersey sales, there isn' t a worse QB situation. What they do know is that Derek Anderson isn' t good enough. In fact,nike nfl concept jerseys, he might not even be a suitable No. 2. So, that leaves Max Hall. Give him a shot. Maybe he blows you away. More likely,nfl jersey size chart, he gives you the confidence that he can be your long-term No. 2. Then,a on hockey jersey,michigan state football jersey, draft away. Mike Sando: Hall isn' t as wide-eyed as the typical rookie. He' s 25 years old and confident. That' s the only reason I' d consider starting him this early in the season and against a team as talented as the Cardinals' Week 5 opponent,college football jerseys, New Orleans. This is where Ken Whisenhunt and quarterbacks coach Chris Miller must have the right feel. They' ll know whether it' s too early to push Hall into the lineup. Benching Anderson against the Chargers makes sticking with Hall easier. It' s not like naming Hall the starter would undercut Anderson. That already happened against the Chargers and Whisenhunt has made it clear the best players will usually play. When should Seattle consider starting Charlie Whitehurst? WhitehurstMatt Williamson: In a way,new nike nfl,nfl jersey sale,football jersey design, the awful NFC West cripples the Seahawks here, as they are now in the thick of a playoff race -- although they are not a playoff-worthy franchise. As long as they are in it,nfl jersey history, they have to start Hasselbeck. But there is a problem. To me, they really need to know what they have in Whitehurst before the next draft. In the end,nike nfl jerseys leaked, surely he will get an opportunity at some point. Mike Sando: The Seahawks might already know they need someone other than Hasselbeck or Whitehurst beyond this season. I haven' t gotten the sense Whitehurst has made a strong statement to this point. Of course, he should get some regular-season work before that determination is made. Making a change will essentially end Hasselbeck' s career as a viable starter in Seattle. I think it' s early for that. Coach Pete Carroll' s emphasis on turnover avoidance might have Hasselbeck playing a little too conservatively. Every coach wants to avoid turnovers. Every coach also wants his quarterback to make plays. Hasselbeck needs to make more of them. Whitehurst is more of a downfield thrower. Seattle might not have the personnel at receiver to go that route. Should Alex Smith remain the starter for San Francisco? SmithMatt Williamson: I have been a Smith backer -- especially since he just has not had ample opportunity to give up on him. I would say a few more losing games/terrible performances would be enough for me, youth nfl jersey, nfl jersey history, though. The problem in the big picture is that the staff and most of the offensive personnel is designed to have a power downhill running game. But the "franchise QB" is a soft-throwing spread guy who needs to operate out of the shotgun and have real defined reads. Bad combo. Mike Sando: Perhaps I'm not giving David Carr enough credit for what he showed with the New York Giants, womens nfl jersey, virginia tech football jersey, but I just don't see viable alternatives on the 49ers' roster. Troy Smith arrived too late in the game and hasn't gotten enough practice reps. Nate Davis? The 49ers would have to be in give-up-the-season mode to go that route. The circumstances in San Francisco have put Smith at a disadvantage. The situation is far from ideal now. I think the 49ers are the victims of a rough early schedule. I suspect their head coach lacks the experience and emotional stability to navigate a team through tough times. No matter. Smith has never been in better position to succeed. He showed something in the New Orleans game. He needs to show much more, but I wouldn't make a quarterback change before the Week 9 bye. That would be the time to re-evaluate. How good can Bradford be this year? Matt Williamson: Quite good. In fact, oregon football jersey, he already is and seems to be only getting better. Sure, there will be speed bumps -- probably big, nasty speed bumps. But this kid can play. It won't happen this year, hockey jersey maker, NCAA Football Jerseys, but Pro Bowls are in his future. Mike Sando: The Rams have gotten a taste of winning. They know they have the best quarterback situation in the division. The schedule gets tougher later in the season, custom nfl football jerseys, but I agree that Bradford will improve. Barring injuries around him, Cheap Hockey Jersey, nfl cheap jerseys, university of michigan football jersey, Bradford should be able to throw at least 20 touchdown passes this season. I think he'll throw fewer interceptions. The longer the Rams remain in the division race, cool nfl jerseys, the more strongly Bradford should factor into consideration for rookie of the year. Sports Blog Jimmy Clausen could be in for long night The Steelers have been pretty productive on defense when they send five or more rushers. Opponents have completed 55.1 percent of their passes for 6.7 yards per attempt with seven touchdowns and seven interceptions while compiling a 72.5 passer rating. A very wise former flag-football player once had this to say about Carolina quarterback Jimmy Clausen: "He ain't in Notre Dame anymore, new nfl jerseys, that's for sure." Let's cut to the chase and say it: Arizona's a bad football team. Pittsburgh is a very good one, new nike nfl jerseys 2012, particularly on defense. So don't get too carried away about Clausen completing 13 of 19 passes for 141 yards and a touchdown in a seven-point home win against Arizona. In fact, nike nfl football, the rookie is starting against the Pittsburgh Steelers tonight. Other than having a staff featuring a few former Pittsburgh assistants, the Cardinals haven't been confused with the Steelers this year. Categorized as: Sports Blog That means there is the potential for things to get really ugly. When using five or more pass-rushers, nfl jersey numbers, the Steelers have an NFL-best 22 sacks, nfl 2012 jerseys, according to ESPN Stats & Information.
